

If all from the City should
Charlie,
Charlie
can sleep
an lounge
in
I was afraid you will not get a new long letter this week. Thanksgiving is coming and there are so many little things to be done before than that I hardly know which may to turn. I would say that I don't doubt we can find a place to put Seddie even if the folks do all come from the City. We should be very happy to have her come. I don't know whether Charlie will be home or not.
He says his school closes on the 20th. He had heard the offer of one or two schools but has not decided.
I wish he could find a good school down this way. I am glad your visit to Cousin

1877

Supper
Office
-
in sofa
in dining room
leaving
two Bedroom
for you
edmine and Seddie

Love went off so pleasantly.
I had no fears about it. On the whole I think it just advantage that Mrs. S. did not go, as Cousin Love would not have become so much acquainted with Mr. S. had she been there. Cousin Love writes that she enjoyed the visit very much and that she liked Mr. S. extremely, I feel glad over that fruit accomplished

Aunt Fannie declines my invitation to come up and take Thursday dinner with us, as she has invited Abbie Noble to come down with her family.

I had seen in the paper the death of Miss Trent's sister and we felt sure it must be her sister. I am sorry for the poor child. It is hard indeed for one so young to have so much to bear.

Of course she is not at the club house and this will increase your expenses, will it not?